RAID NO. 3.

The Merry War on Guttenburg Track Still Continues.

WALBAUM AGAIN A VICTIM.

JUDGE KNAPP DIES IN COURT.

Arrests Quietly Made—The Day's Racing Uneventful.

GUTTENBURG RACE TRACK, Jan. 26.—The track at Guttenburg was as hard as iron and as lumpy as a street full of upturned cobblestones. It was utterly unfit for racing.

The weather was bitterly cold and seats near the stoves in the betting ring and behind the glass enclosure on the grand-stand were at a premium.

Another raid was made in the betting ring at Guttenburg this afternoon.

Capt. Graham and his men were before the Grand Jury, but warrants were issued just the same, and Deputy Constable Schultz, who had been impeded to serve them,

Everything was done very quietly, and few in the ring were aware of what was going on.

The men arrested were: President Fred Walbaum and Bookmakers E. J. Cernet, Ettemark, Fred Lowe, J. Lachman, Pat Shanahan, of the St. John's Club; John Ryan, of the Marion Club; the Worcester Club, J. Condon, of the London Club, and the Baltic Club.

They were taken out by the rear door and took earnings which they carried them to the North. Captain Gotschel stood outside the track.

The raiding party admitted the prisoners to jail, except the two who were held in custody, John P. Ryan, Peter Walker, Harry Butler and Fred Bauer were the remaining.

The horses which were being transported back to the track and business was restored.

The raiding party left the track and business was all arrested.

The programme was rather poor one, and scratches in the various events were quite numerous.

The attendance was very small, not more than 500 people being present.

The opening race only half won scratch, that being Matta.

The others came to the post with the exception of the first and fifth.

The second race resulted in an upset, Yazzo, at 3 to 1, defeating the favorite, Duke John, who was at 2 to 1 shot.

FIRST RACE.
